believe

I believe. I believe in wonder,
I believe in Love. I believe
In the power of a fresh peach
To transform a bad day — even If it's only a sweet recollection!
I believe in the wee folk and the Faire, that animals talk at Midwinter,
And that, together, you and I are Going to change the world. Oh, yes.
I believe. I have seen your gifts.
I know my own. Let's practice together
And let's master that dance step that Makes the Peacepath fun and possible!
