encourage

Look at you. You've learned
So much in such a short time.
You've mastered that skill —
What's next? How strong and Gentle you are... I don't know
Anyone who does that as well.
To encourage! May I be one
Who encourages others to Find their feet, steady themselves,
Reach for their dreams, and then Accomplish them. You can do that, I know it! Just look how far you've Already come. Let me encourage you:
Join the Peacepath and encourage others!
