join

Won't you join me? Just a Simple, positive invitation to Get to know one another or
To share a cup of tea or to Simply look at an incredible
Piece of nature before you.
Won't you join me? As you Go off to visit a friend or see
The Sunset on the river.
May I join you is equally powerful.
Coming to know one another
And the things that give us Joy
Are slow, certain ways of Peacemaking. Won't you join me?
